Ragman

Won't somebody give me a chance to rage a little! This is some great stuff, not so much blues but more Pop.
George Deveny delivers some wonderful Cooderish slide that's worth the price of admission. Nice production that reminds me of 60's stuff, tambourine off to the side, open sounding.

Don't wanna be your dog

Did I hear someone say Clapton? I thought so. Do yourself a favor, check it out yourself. John L Savage makes my top 20! All pro.

Press Reviews

Here's what music industry insiders at TAXI say about Savage's songs:"... a solid blues tunesmith with a unique twist & intelligence that sets him above that genre...insightful lyrics and a strong resonant vocal." "His vocals are strong and believable, very Van Morrison-ish." "...interesting and emotional songs you will love hearing in any setting..." "The Rag Man' is destined to become a classic..."
